

Empowering Positive Change through Careers Education.

#NCW2021

Headline Partner:

National Careers Week runs from 1 - 6 March 2021 and aims to promote the importance of good careers education in schools and colleges. NCW invites Schools, Colleges, Universities, Teachers and Careers Professionals to celebrate quality CEIAG (Careers Education, Information, Advice & Guidance) for at least one full week each year.

This month's edition focusses on a range of careers and aims to encourage young people to explore new career pathways.

Getting Started
National Careers Week 2021 1st - 5th March

What do I need to know?

Watch for 2021, Andrew 'Bennet' Bernard talks through the history of Careers Week, and how to start planning for Careers Week.

FOR NATIONAL CAREERS WEEK

The Parents' Guide provides parents with the information they need to help their teenage children make the right choices to create successful futures after GCSE and sixth form. Online guides are designed to inform, involve and guide parental support. They include the most up to date information on topics such as apprenticeships, universities and revision techniques.

National Careers Week celebrates: Home School Careers Conversations 1 - Who are we?

An opportunity for students and parents to consider what is important to them, and start a conversation on who we are and what is important to us.

<https://nationalcareersweek.com/download/23545/>

We are always looking to improve our Careers Programme and encourage parents and students to provide us with feedback or suggestions. If you would like information on careers not featured in this month's newsletter, please forward your thoughts to parkerc@st-gregorys.org.uk.

I would like to feature new careers in every edition. As a parent, if you would like to highlight and share your career pathway, please drop me a line and let me know more about your role. I would be delighted to hear from you.

Thank you.

T-Shirt Design Competition

Using your understanding of the subject of Careers, design a T-shirt that's bold, bright and focusses on careers and career skills

Competition deadline 31/3/21

ATTENTION CREATIVES

The image shows a template for a t-shirt design competition. It features three outlines of a t-shirt: 'Front', 'Sleeve', and 'Back'. The 'Front' view shows a simple crew neck t-shirt. The 'Sleeve' view shows a single sleeve with a cuff. The 'Back' view shows a standard crew-neck t-shirt. Above the outlines, the text 'T-SHIRT DESIGN COMPETITION' is centered. To the right, there is a Twitter icon followed by the handle '@CAREERSWEEK' and the hashtag '#NCW2021'. At the bottom left, the National Careers Week logo ('NCW') and the NatWest Group logo are displayed. A small note at the bottom right encourages designers to submit their designs by 31/3/21.

National Careers Week
NCW Supported by NatWest Group

Design an official t-shirt for National Careers Week 2021! We're looking for a bright, bold design that highlights careers and career skills. Don't forget to incorporate #NCW2021 and the twitter handle @careersweek.

Submit your design by 31/3/2021 and you could see your t-shirt design worn across the country for next year's event!

(Good luck!)

The session is an hour long and aimed at Years 10-13.

If you want to know more about what it's like to work in a museum, (especially one linked to Science) and the different roles that exist then, please register and attend on 5 March.

Those that can't attend due to live lessons may be able to register and request a copy of the presentation to watch at a later date.

Our Hub based at the National Science and Media Museum in Bradford works on behalf of STEM learning to raise "science capital" and raise STEM career aspirations by connecting industry specialist volunteer Ambassadors with Schools, Colleges and Community groups.
