Why Spanish?

A radical and exciting departure from the GCSE, you will undertake far higher levels of independent study and research and a more rigorous approach to grammar. Reading of Spanish newspapers and visiting Spanish speaking countries is encouraged so you can really master the language and learn to value the different Spanish speaking cultures.

The course has four main themes:

1. Aspects of Spanish Society
2. Artistic culture in the Spanish World
3. Multiculturalism in the Spanish World
4. Aspects of Political Life in the Spanish World.

You will also study and critically appreciate in writing, two works, one of which must be literary and other may be a film.

Assessment

40% - Paper 1 - Listening, Reading and Writing

20% - Paper 2 - Writing on a set text and film

40% - Paper 3 - Speaking
