Dear Students, Parents, Carers and Governors

In my final reflection of 2023, I want to begin by sharing something wonderful that happened on Monday morning. The last week of term can often be very busy and stressful in a school with all of us trying to tie up loose ends and ensure that everyone goes into the holiday season happy, safe and well. At 9am on Monday morning there was a knock on my office door and three Year 11 girls, Ruby, Skye and Angel, came to show off Ruby's 'flour baby' which she has made as part of the Child Development course. We had a lovely conversation about the baby's name - cleverly named Daisy after Daisy Renton in their GCSE text An Inspector Calls - and how the girls are looking after her.

Being a flour baby, she was much quieter than the real thing but the girls were so proud of her and I was delighted to take time out of my schedule to find out about their project. At the end of last week we sadly said goodbye to our Sulis students who were on an exchange from Colegio Arenas in Lanzarote. When I asked them what their favourite memories of their time at St Gregory's were, they all said it was the friendships they had made and the staff support at school that they would remember the most. I know some of our students have plans to visit Lanzarote in the near future to keep in touch with their new-found Spanish friends.

I also visited the Chinese Embassy this week for the Mandarin Excellence Programme Headteachers' Conference where I got to hear about the exciting plans and opportunities to develop the programme further. Out of the 3,458 secondary schools in England, only 80 are part of the Mandarin Excellence Programme which is incredibly special indeed.

We have enjoyed Praise assemblies this week where students have been nominated for their effort and achievement in their subjects as well as some of our top Literacy House Point earners being entered into a raffle to win an Amazon voucher - congratulations to all students who have done so well this year.

The most significant event of the week, however, was our beautiful Carol Service. Thank you to all of the students, families, staff, governors and special guests who made our Carol Service such a magical occasion this year. It was delightful to join together with one of our partner schools, St John's, to celebrate the season of Advent with such joy and good cheer. I was very impressed by the staff contribution to Jingle Bell Rocks too! A special thanks to Fr Christopher and the Parish of St John's for hosting us this year and making us feel so welcome.

Wishing you all a very merry Christmas and a happy new year. We return on 2 January 2024 with Year 13 mock exams beginning on the 3 January, so we wish our Year 13 students all the very best of luck for this important milestone. I will leave you with this closing prayer:

Loving God, help us to be instruments of your light and love by doing one special act of kindness or by being your special instrument of reconciliation this New Year.

May the Christ Candle we light symbolise
our desire to bring light into a world of darkness and hope, love and peace into a world of despair.
We ask this through Christ our Lord.

Amen.

Mrs Melissa George (BA Hons, MA, PGCE)
Headteacher

Chaplaincy thoughts for the week...

Advent 2023

Combining the shortest period Advent can be with the earliest finish our school can have has created a two week period full of Advent preparations for us all. Starting just before Advent, on Christ The King, some of our Chaplaincy students attended Ss Peter and Paul parish fayre to sell gifts to raise money for our parish. Over lunchtimes in the build up students created a mixture of eco-friendly gift tags, gift bags and wrapping paper. Many of our students participated in the Lasallian district of Ireland, GB & Malta Christmas card competition, and we had our own school art competition with two stunning pieces of art adorning the Carol Service booklet, courtesy of Benjy and Zara in Year 10.

Throughout Advent students have been creating Christmas Hampers to donate to various charities, organisations and those in need in our local community. Each year group chose a different focus, and with the help of the enthusiastic charity reps, tutor groups created thoughtful hampers full of kindness and joy. Donations were delivered to Julian House Shelter, YMCA, Women's Refuge, Bath Area Play Project, RUH Children's ward and Dementia Care Homes. A team of energetic helpers from our Chaplaincy team helped Mr Allen and myself drive around Bath with the gifts, and we were even blessed with a tour of one of the care homes and the opportunity to meet some of the residents.

In the first week we enjoyed our Christmas lunch with over £500 being raised for Save the Children. Over two days the school took part in Advent Reconciliation Services in the school hall, with 150 candles of various size and colour creating a backdrop for 'light and hope in the darkness'. Everyone was given the opportunity to be still and spend some time reflecting on the gift of ourselves and preparing our hearts for Christmas, before many went along to the sacrament of reconciliation.

Last night was a huge occasion in our calendar and it was wonderful to see so many friends, family and more come along to our mince pie and mulled wine gathering before moving upstairs to the main event of the Carol Service. Our new Head of Music showcased the immense talent of our young people with some beautiful solos, choir pieces and instrumentals. We hope that the service helped fill your hearts with the reason for the season. Thank you from me to all of those who have helped make the service such a huge success again: all of our performing arts and RE teams, readers and singers, St John's Choir and Mrs Smith who were as angelic as ever, and the parish of St John's for hosting us.

Our final day today began with two more Carol Services to ensure everyone leaves for the Christmas holidays feeling festive and ready. It is so important, as ever, for us to worship as a praying community and the contribution of all made it a rousing end to term. Not to forget the final two hours of the day and our annual Christmas Market. A celebration of all the creativity and generosity of our young people who have planned, created and led their class stalls as part of this joyous event. There was everything from raffles, tombola's, tin can alleys, gingerbread decorating, and so many more food, drink and game stalls to tempt our students to donate well to Julian House. Our total raised from the retiring collection at the Carol Service was £302.29. Thank you so much for your generosity; I'm certain your donations will help the charity ease the pain of many who find themselves without a home this Christmas.

A final prayer for Christmas

attributed to Robert Louis Stevenson

Loving God,
help us remember the birth of Jesus,
that we may share in the song of the angels,
the gladness of the shepherds,
and worship of the wise men.
Close the door of hate
and open the door of love all over the world.
Let kindness come with every gift
and good desires with every greeting.
Deliver us from evil by the blessing which Christ
brings,
and teach us to be merry with clear hearts.
May the Christmas morning make us happy to be thy children,
and Christmas evening bring us to our beds with
grateful thoughts,
forgiving and forgiven, for Jesus' sake. Amen.

Mr Robinson, Lay Chaplain

Online Safety from Mr Foley

Could I, first of all, wish you and your families a very Merry Christmas. Christmas can be a difficult time for many people, so please be mindful of others and remember them in your prayers.

Can I remind you all that, as the holiday season begins, technology is hugely valuable for education, as well as a way to keep in touch with friends and family. However it's important we all consider, how we can help keep young people safer online.

St Gregory's community, plays a major role in keeping everyone safe by informing you all about issues related to safety online. Remember the following steps you can take to help keep your child safer online:

- Explore together: Ask your child to show you their favourite websites and apps and what they do on them. Listen, show interest and encourage them to teach you the basics of the site or app.
- Chat about online safety little and often: Talk to them about how to stay safe on new services, and in general. Ask if anything ever worries them while they're online. Make sure they know that if they ever feel worried, they can get help by talking to you or another adult they trust.
- Help your child identify trusted adults who can help them if they are worried: This includes you and other adults at home, as well as adults from wider family, school or other support services. Encourage them to write a list of their trusted adults.
- Be non-judgemental: Explain that you would never blame them for anything that might happen online, and you will always give them calm, loving support.
- Talk about how their online actions can affect others: As your child engages with others online, remind them to consider how someone else might feel before they post or share. If they are considering sharing a photo/video of somebody else, they should always ask permission first.
- Parental controls: Make use of the parental controls available on your home broadband and any internet enabled device in your home. You can find out more about how to use parental controls by visiting your broadband provider's website.
- Direct your child to age appropriate information about relationships and sex. It's natural for young people to look for information on relationships and sex online. It's important to understand this and talk to your child in a positive way. CEOP Education, Brook and The Mix provide age appropriate information you can signpost your child to.
- Make sure they know about CEOP. Young people can report a concern about grooming or sexual abuse to CEOP at www.ceop.police.uk/safety-centre/

You could also read the advice the UK Safer Internet Centre provide.

As parents and carers you play a key role in helping your child to stay safe online. However, as a parent myself, I am fully aware this can be really difficult and daunting to manage because our children know more than we do!

Therefore the following links, provide important information, guidance and advice regarding matters related to safe usage and monitoring:

Internet Matters
Parent Zone

If you have come across anything that seems wrong and not right then it is really important to report it to the relevant authorities – this includes the school but more importantly the police and the National Crime Agency - CEOP Safety Centre: -

Young people can report concerns about child sexual abuse and exploitation to CEOP by visiting www.ceop.police.uk/safetycentre.

All reports are assessed and responded to by CEOP's specialist Child Protection Advisors. If a police response is necessary, this will be conducted in partnership with local police forces.

A link button can be found on our website in our Online Safety section under the Parent Information Tab.

Report Remove: is a free tool that allows children to report nude or sexual images and videos of themselves that they think might have been shared online, to see if they can be removed from the internet.

Childline: is a free, private and confidential (unless child is at risk of being harmed or harming others) service where CYP (children and young people) can talk about anything to a trained counsellor, online or on the phone.

NSPCC's Report Abuse in Education helpline is a new helpline, commissioned by the Department for Education in response to Ofsted's Everybody's Invited Report. The helpline offers support and guidance to CYP and professionals working with CYP in Education and parents and carers who have experienced or witnesses sexual harassment or abuse in schools. Call 0800 136 663 or email help@nspcc.org.uk.

Marie Collins Foundation: MCF provides a range of services, support and resources for children and young people, and their families who have been affected by online child sexual abuse.

Stop It Now: Stop It Now is run by the Lucy Faithfull Foundation. Adults can call if they are worried about an adult, child or young person's sexual behaviour. They can call 0808 1000 900 or use their live chat function.

Absences

Reporting Absences

Feature on the Class Charts (parent) App

Please use the Class Charts app to notify the school if your child is going to be absent. The absence telephone line is still available, however we would prefer you to use this app if possible. This should not only be easier for you, but will allow the school to be more efficient when recording student absences. Once we have acknowledged the absence, you will receive a confirmation email to the account that is registered in the app.

If your school has decided to allow parents to report absences, you will see the Absences tab when viewing pupils from that school.

Selecting this tab will display a list of absences that you have reported, once you have reported them. This includes when the absence took place, the reason for the absence and who acknowledged your absence report.

To report an absence, click on the Report new absence button.

Next, enter the details of the reported absence into the form provided.

You can also include up to 5 files in your absence report as supporting evidence. To do this, click on the Attach supporting evidence button and select the files of your choice.

Click on the Submit button to send your pupil's absence report to their school. The absence can be edited and deleted until it has been acknowledged by a teacher.

Date of absence: 26/01/2021

Reason for absence: Terry missed the bus today.

Please report your child's absences as soon as possible
