

KEY STAGE 4 SUGGESTED READING LIST

The Lemonade War by Jacqueline Davies

Siblings Evan and Jessie find themselves in a summer business competition. Evan starts a lemonade stand, while Jessie opens a competing stand across the street. As they battle for customers and profits, they learn valuable lessons about entrepreneurship, teamwork, and the ups and downs of running a business.

Lemonade Mouth by Mark Hughes

When a group of high school students forms a band named Lemonade Mouth, they discover that their music has the power to inspire change. This tale of teenage rebellion, entrepreneurship, and the impact of creative teamwork is both fun and thought-provoking.

Toothpaste Millionaire by Jean Merrill

A tale of young entrepreneurship, "The Toothpaste Millionaire" follows two friends, Rufus and Kate, as they decide to make and sell toothpaste to their classmates. This story highlights the journey of starting a business from scratch and the challenges they face along the way.

Lawn Boy by Gary Paulsen

When a 12-year-old boy mows a few lawns for extra cash, he inadvertently starts a lawn care business that grows beyond his expectations. This book explores the basics of business, including earning, saving, and investing, in a light-hearted and humorous way.

The Boy Who Harnessed the Wind by William Kamkwamba

This inspiring true story follows the journey of William Kamkwamba, a young boy from Malawi, who uses his ingenuity and resourcefulness to build a windmill from scrap materials. His invention transforms his community and offers a lesson in determination and innovation.

The Young Entrepreneur's Guide to Starting and Running a Business by Steve Mariotti

While not a traditional novel, this book serves as a practical guide for aspiring young entrepreneurs. It covers the fundamentals of starting and running a business, providing valuable insights and real-world examples that can inspire and educate teenagers interested in business ventures.

